Tell Me More About Cub Scouting.

Your Cub Scout is a member of a den. Most dens have six to eight boys and meet once a week. Den meetings are a time for learning new things and having fun. Dens are led by a team of adult volunteers - the Den Leader and Assistant Den Leaders. Den leaders are usually parents of boys in the den. Your Cub Scout is also a member of a pack made up of the dens. Our pack has several dens and meets once a month. Pack meetings usually follow a suggested theme and are a time for boys to be recognized for their accomplishments during the month, to perform skits and songs they've learned in den meetings and to have fun with the entire family.
